

Mobile Diesel Mechanic

A well established, privately owned, and operated transportation company has an opportunity for an experienced Truck Mechanic. Position will be responsible for overseeing all aspects Troubleshoot, Diagnose, and Repair Semi-Truck and Trailers to include but not limited to: Commercial Tires, HVAC, Brakes, Steering & Suspension, PM Inspections, Drive Train, and Electrical

Job Responsibilities

- Perform routine maintenance on trucks, such as checking batteries and changing oil to ensure proper vehicle running.
- Inspect various parts of trucks, including brake systems, wheel bearings and steering mechanisms to ensure they are in the proper condition to operate effectively.
- Use different tools and equipment, such as pressure gauges, pneumatic wrenches, welding equipment, screwdrivers, hoists, and jacks, to repair trucks while constantly utilizing safety precautions.
- Diagnose malfunctions in defective equipment by inspecting and testing using devices such as motor analyzers, handheld computers, and chassis charts to determine how to address problems.
- Test drive vehicles to ensure they are running properly and to find issues to determine what the solution will be.
- Replace parts, valves, bearings, and gears as needed and repair vehicle cooling and heating systems.
- Measure vehicle emissions to ensure they are within the proper limits.
- Ensure parts conform to factory specifications by inspecting and verifying clearances and dimensions.

Job Skills & Qualifications

Required:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- Must be able to lift heavy equipment and parts regularly.
- Excellent customer service skills
- Must be comfortable with working in awkward positions or cramped spaces.

Preferred:

- Technical certification or degree
- Experience working with diagnostic computers.
- Previous experience as a truck and trailer mechanic